

THIRD SUNDAY EVENT

* Free admission and open to the public*

November 20, 2016 at 3:30 PM

Rosa B. Grayden

Administrative Assistant, Sociology and Anthropology
Clemson University's College of Behavioral, Social, & Health Sciences will make a presentation about

Identity Theft and Identity Theft Protection

which will be from every angle, not just your Social Security number, credit cards and bank accounts.

▼ ▼ Followed by ▼ ▼

Is your child or grandchild struggling to read? A new Lakes & Bridges Charter School may be able to help. Headquartered in the Clemson area, a Lakes & Bridges Charter School representative will provide information regarding an expansion plan for a new public, free charter school that will be located in Pickens County or Oconee County. This new charter school will focus on educating children in the upstate who are having trouble learning to read as a result of having dyslexia and/or related learning disorders.

☐ Save the date and join us. Light refreshments served afterward. ☐

The CAAAM event will take place in The Calhoun Bridge Center, 214 Butler St., Clemson, SC.

for further information, contact:

Pat Kemp, 864-506-1057 or Larry Walker, 864-985-2891 or Deborah Hamilton, 864-247-1257

The Clemson Area African-American Museum is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization. Donations are appreciated.